

COPILOT CONTRACT

I, _____, do hereby assume the responsibilities and privileges of copilot in the vehicle piloted by _____.

As copilot I do hereby swear to give clear and concise directions whenever called upon. Furthermore, I vow to know where we are at all times — even in the dark. I promise to provide delicious snack foods and beverages at a moment's notice. I promise not to eat the last of said snacks without the driver's express permission. I vow to limit my bathroom breaks to 1 per 40 miles driven. I affirm that I will change the radio station without question whenever the driver deems a song to be "lame," no matter how "awesome" I may think it is. In addition, I promise to always take the driver's side no matter how clearly in the wrong my driver obviously is. Finally, I agree to take over the job of driver whenever asked, and without forcing my driver to adhere to or sign anything remotely resembling this contract.
